FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

ANNOUNCING THE FORMATION OF VERIS LAW GROUP PLLC

SEATTLE - February 8, 2012 - Howard Jensen, Josh Brower, Alison Robinson and Denver Gant are pleased to announce the formation of their law firm, Veris Law Group PLLC located in downtown Seattle at 1809 Seventh Avenue, Suite 1400.

"We are delighted to open the doors of our new firm," said Howard Jensen, founding partner of Veris Law Group. "The diverse skills of our lawyers and staff, combined with our experience in multiple areas of law, provide great depth to our team and the services we offer clients."

Howard F. Jensen focuses his practice on real estate development and the complexities associated with contaminated property, including litigating cost recovery actions, negotiating consent decrees and administrative orders with federal and state agencies, securing insurance coverage for clients facing significant environmental liabilities, and obtaining regulatory closure for complex sites. Howard also frequently prepares and negotiates real estate documents. He received his J.D. from University of Washington School of Law.

Joshua C. Brower is an experienced land use, real estate and business lawyer, with an emphasis on complex projects, permitting, and land use regulatory compliance. He works with clients to negotiate purchase and sale agreements, perform due diligence, obtain land use approvals, conduct environmental review, and address permitting and legislative issues involving zoning, platting, shoreline compliance and growth management. Josh has successfully represented clients in administrative tribunals, superior court actions, alternative dispute resolution proceedings, and before the Washington Appellate Courts. He received his J.D. from Seattle University School of Law.

Alison Jones Robinson focuses her practice on environmental and real estate law, with an emphasis on regulatory issues associated with contaminated properties. Alison advises clients regarding regulatory compliance and cost recovery actions under federal and state law. She works with clients to secure insurance coverage for environmental claims, conduct environmental due diligence, and negotiate and draft transactional documents such as leases, easements, and remediation agreements. She received her J.D. from University of Washington School of Law.

Denver R. Gant has a varied practice including environmental, real estate, business, trusts, estates, and taxation. He advises clients regarding regulatory compliance and cost recovery actions, works with clients to secure insurance coverage for environmental claims, conducts environmental due diligence, and negotiates and drafts transactional documents such as purchase and sale agreements, leases, and easements. In his business, trust, estates, and taxation practice he assists clients with their wills and trusts and advises clients on a broad range of estate planning and probate issues. He received his J.D. from Seattle University School of Law and his LL.M from University of Washington School of Law.
